

TO GAIN CONTROL OF HAMPTON-SIDNEY

Dr. Joseph Rennie, of Norfolk, Urges Synod to Secure Presbyterian School, NOW HAS INDIRECT CHARGE

Elkins, West Virginia, Is Named as Next Site for Session, Body Adjourning.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] ROANOKE, VA., October 19.—The Presbyterian Synod of Virginia closed its one hundred and twenty-first meeting to-night. This has been a busy day, in which much routine work has been transacted, and in which some matters of considerable importance occupied the attention of the body.

Dr. Joseph Rennie, of Norfolk, made a strong and earnest address, in which he urged the synod to take an advanced step in education by establishing schools of various grades, or by trying to get control of those that are already established. He urged especially that steps should be taken to see whether some arrangement could be made by which the synod could secure entire and direct control of Hampton-Sidney College, instead of the indirect control which it now has. Dr. Rennie emphasized the importance of all the Presbyterians of the State giving the college their support and financial help, whether its relation to the synod is changed or not. A committee was appointed to see what could be done in this matter and to report at the next meeting.

Home Missions.

The Rev. Dr. S. L. Morris, secretary of home mission work for the Southern Presbyterian Church, made a stirring speech, in which he showed the great need of home mission work in order to make this a Christian nation in reality, as it is in name. He said that of the 90,000,000 of the population of this country only 20,000,000 are in Protestant churches of all kinds, including the negro churches. There are 12,000,000 Roman Catholics and others who are not considered evangelized. This leaves 58,000,000 unevangelized people in this country.

The Rev. Louis Myer, a converted Hebrew, now a preacher of the Associated Reformed Presbyterian Church, made an address on mission work among the Hebrew people of the world, and awakened a great deal of interest on this subject among those who heard him.

The next meeting of the synod will be held on October 14, 1909, at Elkins, W. Va.

LEG BROKEN; FOOT MASHED.

Cow Stepped on Little Boy's Leg; Weights Fall on Mr. Duncan's Foot.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] CARTERSVILLE, VA., October 19.—Little George Bogert, son of Mr. G. A. Bogert, near Cartersville, got his leg badly broken on Saturday evening. He was playing in the barn yard, when a cow knocked him down and ran over him, stepping on the leg and breaking both bones. Dr. Snead set the bones, and the little fellow is comfortable.

Mr. W. F. Duncan, a prominent merchant of Pemberton, had his foot very badly mashed on Saturday evening. He had some trouble with his gas flow, and went to examine the machine. The chain holding the weights broke, and they fell on his foot, mashing it terribly.

Mr. Coleman, a student from the seminary at Richmond, preached for the Presbyterians here on Sunday, in the absence of the pastor, Mr. Christian, who was attending a conference.

Rev. Mr. Lewis, of the Episcopal Church, gave notice on Sunday that the Richmond convention would be held at St. Paul's Church, in Goodland county, beginning Tuesday, the 27th, and lasting till Friday the 30th. He said the convention had not been held here since the war, and a large attendance is expected.

TRIED TO STAB POLICE OFFICER.

Desperate Negro Furiously Resists Arrest and Is Shot—May Live.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] ASHEVILLE, N. C., October 19.—A negro, without a large knife, Jim Scott, made a desperate effort to kill Police Officer Lomine at a late hour last night, and was not subdued until after two bullets from the officer's pistol, fired at close range, had penetrated his body, and even then, in his badly wounded condition, he struggled until he had been placed behind the bars in the city jail.

Officer Lomine had been called to the house of a colored woman, who complained that she had been attacked by Scott. Scott again attacked the woman. Policeman Lomine intervened.

Of Interest To Women.

To such women as are not seriously out of health, but who have exacting duties to perform, either in the way of household cares or in social duties and functions, which seriously tax their strength, as well as to nursing mothers, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has proved a most valuable supporting tonic and invigorating nerve. By its timely use, much nervous sickness and suffering may be avoided. The operating table and the surgeon's knife, would, it is believed, seldom have to be employed if this most valuable woman's remedy were resorted to in good time. The Favorite Prescription has proven a great boon to expectant mothers by preparing the system for the coming of baby, thereby rendering childbirth safe, easy, and almost painless.

Bear in mind, please that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is not a secret or patent medicine, against which the most intelligent people are quite naturally averse, because of the uncertainty as to their composition and harmless character, but is a MEDICINE OF KNOWN COMPOSITION, a full list of all its ingredients being printed, in plain English, on every bottle wrapper. An examination of this list of ingredients will disclose the fact that it is a medicine in its composition, chemically pure, triple-refined glycerine taking the place of the commonly used alcohol, in its make-up. In this connection it may not be out of place to state that the Favorite Prescription of Dr. Pierce is the only medicine put up for the cure of woman's peculiar weaknesses and ailments, any kind of solid drug, all the ingredients of which have the unanimous endorsement of all the leading medical writers and teachers of all the several schools of practice, and that too as remedies for the ailments for which the Favorite Prescription is recommended.

ferred, whereupon Scott drew a large knife and sprang at the officer. A desperate struggle ensued, during which the negro tried ineffectually to stab the officer. Finally Lomine got his free hand to his pistol and fired twice, the first bullet passing through the negro's two arms and abdomen, from right to left; the second, entering the abdomen and ranging upward, notwithstanding the desperate nature of his wounds, Scott still vainly tried to use his knife, and after being disarmed struggled fiercely until put behind the bars.

Scott's brother was shot and killed several years ago while resisting an officer.

Saunders and His Competitor Also Spear, Together with Carrico and A. L. Blair.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] CHATHAM, VA., October 19.—Hon. Harry St. George Tucker, candidate for Governor, addressed a large crowd in the courthouse here to-day. The greater part of his speech was given to the tariff plank of the Republican platform, tearing it to pieces and explaining their promise of unequivocal revision of the tariff March next. He then touched on the invasion of State rights by the present administration, showing that the same policies would be continued if Taft was elected.

Mr. Tucker was followed by Congressman Saunders in a short speech. District Chairman Carrico, Hon. A. L. Blair, of New York; Hon. John M. Parsons, Republican nominee for Congress; Messrs. Hundley and S. H. Hoge addressed a gathering on the court green, their remarks containing many promises and arraigning of the opposing party.

SPEAKERS SLOW ACCEPTING.

Difficulty Experienced in Getting Those for Big Rally.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] SUFOLK, VA., October 19.—Some difficulty is being experienced in securing speakers for Democratic Day here on October 25th. It is proposed to have the rally of interstate proportions, and able but headstrong of reputation have been asked. No others will satisfy nor prove the crowd-magnet demanded.

Committees of the Bryan-Kern-Maynard Club are going ahead with preparations, and will be ready to feed every voter present from Southampton, Nansemond and Isle of Wight counties in Virginia, and Northeastern North Carolina.

The only orator whose acceptance has yet been received is Harry St. George Tucker. Governor Swanson and Governor Glenn have both declined because of prior engagements. Replies are expected from former Governor Montague, Judge W. H. Mann, John Goode and Carter Glass, Virginia; Claude Kilgus and W. M. Bond, of North Carolina.

Republicans of Second District Want John S. Wise to Give Them a Lift.

Wise, of New York, to counteract the looked-for effects of the coming Democratic day.

Dinner, Democracy and Enthusiasm.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] SUSSEX, VA., October 19.—One of the largest and most enthusiastic crowds which has assembled at Sussex Courthouse for many years gathered to-day to attend a grand Democratic rally, dinner being free for all. The meeting was called to order by Mr. J. S. Wrenn, president of the Courthouse Club, who in a clear way stated the object of the meeting.

Mr. Thomas H. Hoverton, president of the Waverly Bryan-Kern-Lassiter Club, in well chosen words and a happy manner, introduced the Hon. Samuel L. Kelley, elector at large, who made an able address on the issues of the campaign, paying special attention to the trusts and tariff.

At the conclusion of Mr. Kelley's address the crowd adjourned to the courthouse for a dinner.

After Three Days on Witness Stand, Mr. Chaloner Desires to Suspend Examination.

The hearing has been going on several days in the courthouse here. Mr. Chaloner said he desired a rest after three days of mental strain on the witness stand, and this was agreed upon at a conference of lawyers. Joseph H. Choate, Jr., counsel for Thomas T. Sherman, Chaloner's sanity "committee," against whom Chaloner brought the suit, left to-day for New York, after appointing local lawyers to look after Sherman's interests.
